Hi Dick,

This is Norm Toy Jr, Joe Toy's grandson.
Just wanted to see how things are over there. We have not touched base in a while.

I also wanted to let you know that my grandfather is still alive (he will be 102 on October 24th), although he is not well.
It appears old age has finally caught up to him. He is very frail, weak and he hurts all over. It is really sad to see him suffer in this way.

To be honest, we could have days with him, weeks or months, no one really knows how this is going to play out. His body will shut when it is ready.

I know how fond he is of you and vice versa, so I thought you would like to know. I will send you an email with details when I have more news to share.

Thanks,
Norm
